Dear Brother Cawyer:

Let me take this opportunity to once again express my appreciation and that of this congregation for the presentation of the Herald of Truth program to us some-time ago. I deeply regret failing to make the necessary arrangements to insure a capacity crowd but assure you that those who were in attendance became more appreciative of the work which the Herald of Truth is doing.

I am happy to report that the Elders of this congregation have included this work in our 1962 budget. This congregation will be contributing $25 per month toward this effective labor.

We send you our best wishes for an even greater year for the "Herald of Truth" in 1962.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
